TITANIC LOST--ONLY 675 OUT OF 2200 SAVED NO WORD OF YOUNGSTOWN TRAVELERS ON BOARD

The rumor that the Titanic, which collided with an iceberg off New Foundland, was sinking was not only confirmed in an Associated Press dispatch received Monday night about 8:30 o'clock, but the appalling news came that the monster boat had gone down and carried hundreds of her passengers to death. The dispatch stated that the Titanic had been swallowed by the sea while in tow towards Cape Race and that only 675 of her 2200 passengers had been saved.

These had been picked up by the steamer Virginia, which stood by during the excitement attending the crash between the Titanic and the iceberg, to render aid to the stricken vessel. Those saved were in boats and they were transferred from the Virginia to the Carpathia. Of those who lost their lives when the Titanic went under it is impossible to learn. No list of the victims of the accident will be obtainable for many hours as it will be necessary to check up the survivors and then secure a list of those who booked passage on the ship for the maiden trip before it can be ascertained who perished and where they resided.

As stated in the Vindicator on Monday evening when the news of the catastrophe was published that Mrs. George D. Wick, Mrs. Mabel Wick and Miss Charlotte Bonnell of this city were passengers on the Titanic, being transported to Europe on a happy cruise on the White Star line. It is not known whether they were among the survivors or not. Local relatives had failed to receive word from the Youngstown people who were on the Titanic Monday night and there were grave fears for their safety.

The Valley's Titanic loss

by DENISE BUCK
YOUNGSTOWN
Titanic survivor Mollie Wick told her sister about watching the brightly lit ship sink into the North Atlantic, lights flickering row by row.

The monument for Col. George D. Wick at Glen Hill Cemetery on Youngstown's South Side. Wick, the first president of Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., was among those who died on Titanic 100 years ago.

Tre giovani studenti di arti marziali e il loro insegnante sono malmenati da un uomo errante che si proclama "correttore del cattivo kung-fu". Determinati a vendicare la loro insegnante e riguadagnare il loro onore, i tre studenti vanno tutti in modi separati per trovare maestri di kung-fu che li prenderanno come studenti. Uno specialista nella correzione del cattivo Kung Fu & quot; arriva in città e procede per sistemare le cose storte. (Questo perfezionista ha persino documenti per dimostrare di essere uno specialista.) Quando il loro Maestro è pubblicamente "corretto" & quot; i suoi tre studenti partono (per un periodo di sei mesi concordato) per migliorare le loro capacità sospette. Ah Tien apprendisti sotto una donna il cui kung fu si rivela superiore al suo (il suo calcio è particolarmente impressionante). Il secondo studente incontra un "cripple ubriaco" & quot; chi è più che incontra l'occhio e il 3 °, Ah Fu, trova un pescatore il cui kung fu è da morire. Il Maestro, nel frattempo, ha il suo kung fu "corretto"; di nuovo dal Maestro viaggiante. C'è molta azione solida in tutto, rendendo CINQUE SUPERFIGHTER degno di essere visto (le scene di combattimento sembrano migliorare come fanno gli studenti). Nei miei giorni più giovani, ho preso l'abitudine di camminare nel mio quartiere con DUE paia di guanti da boxe drappeggiati sulle mie spalle. Ho affinato le mie abilità a mani nude contro una borsetta appesa nel mio capannone e ho passato le serate a correggere la cattiva boxe in tutta la terra, quindi posso quasi unirmi a The Perfectionist in questo film. Ok, non vedi un film di kung fu ogni giorno in cui un uomo arriva in città per correggere il tuo kung fu rotto. In viene 5 Superfighters, un colpo di kung fu alto-ottavo dai fratelli di Shaw. con una coreografia eccellente.

Un piccolo assaggio del film, di nuovo un maestro arriva in città per aggiustare il kung fu che a suo avviso non è corretto. Va alle scuole casuali e prende a calci fuori i presunti padroni. Poi incontra 3 persone del clan delle scimmie e sconfigge loro e il loro padrone. Accettano di dividersi e imparano il kung fu per 6 mesi, dove poi proverebbero a vendicarsi per il picchiaduro che avevano preso prima.

L'azione è topnotch a dir poco di Shaw Bros. Ci sono un sacco di Shaw Bros. film alla cassa e questo è uno di quelli. Se ti imbatti in questo, divertiti e tienilo stretto, questo film è un vero gioiello. 9/10
